DIRECTIONS AND PARKING

GILMAN PARKING STRUCTURE
A limited number of free spaces will be reserved for this event in the Visitor Parking area on the lower level. Purchasing a parking permit is NOT necessary if in one of these Reserved spaces marked for this event.

Directions
- From I-5, exit at La Jolla Village Drive and go WEST.
- Turn right (north) at Villa La Jolla Drive. Go up the hill and past the VA Medical Center on the right.
- Straight ahead is the Gilman Parking Structure.
- There will be a limited number of free spaces reserved in the Visitor Parking area for this event, on the lower level. If you use one of these spaces, you will NOT need to purchase a visitor parking permit.
- Once the reserved spaces are filled, visitors will need to find their own parking, at a non-reserved Visitor space, or alternate lot. Purchase of a permit will be necessary. Early arrival and carpooling are encouraged, as parking could be a challenge.
- Exit the parking structure to the south (along Gilman Drive) and follow pedestrian signs to the Biomedical Science Building (BSB).
- Enter east or west entrance to BSB. Take elevator to 2nd floor for Liebow Auditorium.
- Overflow space (for remote webcast viewing of webcast) will be in Garren Auditorium, located on first floor.

---

CARTA SYMPOSIUM
“Behaviorally Modern Humans: The Origin of Us”
Friday, May 10, 2013
1:00-5:30 p.m.
UCSD SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
Biomedical Science Building
Liebow Auditorium (2nd floor): Main
Garren Auditorium (1st floor): Overflow

---

Walking paths from different areas of campus, all leading to the east or west entrance of the Biomedical Science Building