A Taste of Evolution: The CARTA Crossword Challenge

Down:

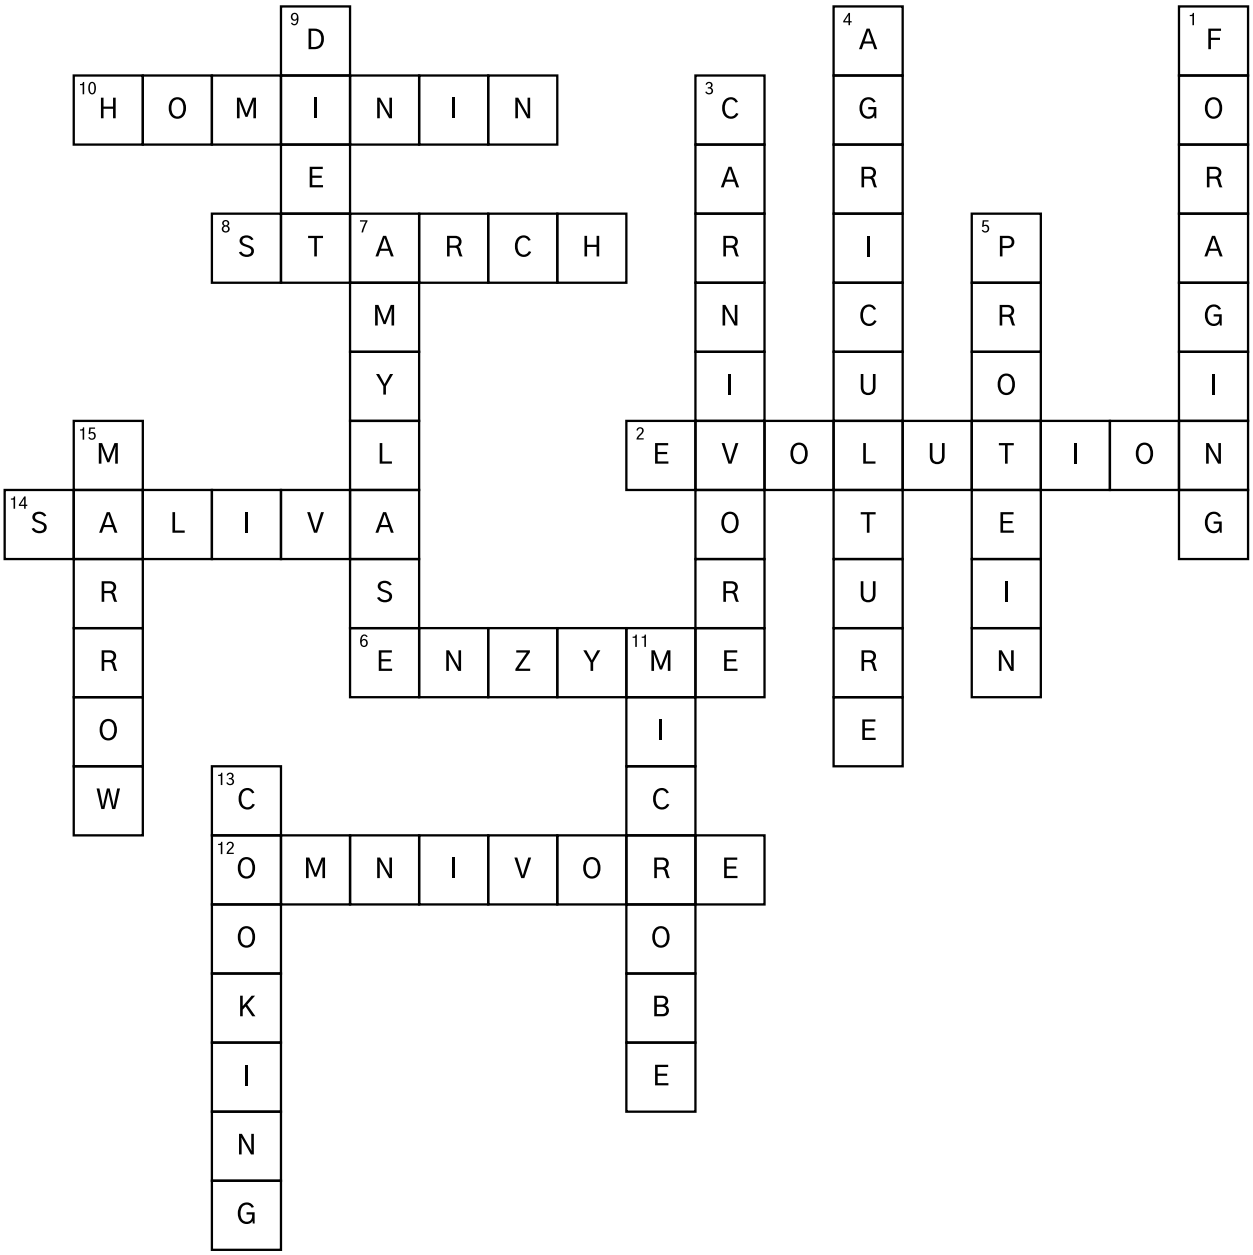

1) Searching for food in the wild
3) An animal that primarily eats meat
4) Growing crops and raising domesticated animals for food
5) Nutrient made up of amino acids
7) Enzyme in saliva that breaks down starch
9) What an organism regularly eats
11) A microscopic organism
13) Using heat to prepare food
15) Fatty tissue found inside bones

Across:

2) The process by which populations change over generations
6) A protein that speeds up chemical reactions
8) A carbohydrate found in potatoes, grains, and other plants
10) A human or extinct relative in our evolutionary lineage
12) An animal that eats both plants and animals
14) Fluid in the mouth that helps begin digestion

A Taste of Evolution: The CARTA Crossword Challenge

Solution

Down:

1) Searching for food in the wild
3) An animal that primarily eats meat
4) Growing crops and raising domesticated animals for food
5) Nutrient made up of amino acids
7) Enzyme in saliva that breaks down starch
9) What an organism regularly eats
11) A microscopic organism
13) Using heat to prepare food
15) Fatty tissue found inside bones

Across:

2) The process by which populations change over generations
6) A protein that speeds up chemical reactions
8) A carbohydrate found in potatoes, grains, and other plants
10) A human or extinct relative in our evolutionary lineage
12) An animal that eats both plants and animals
14) Fluid in the mouth that helps begin digestion